

THE BLOOMFIELD CITIZEN.

VOL. V. NO. 51. WHOLE NO. 259.

BLOOMFIELD, N. J., SATURDAY, APRIL 7, 1888.

TWO DOLLARS PER YEAR.

The Bloomfield Citizen.

A WEEKLY JOURNAL.

Local News and Home Reading

ISSUED BY THE

Bloomfield Publishing Company,

AT

210 BROAD ST., BLOOMFIELD, N. J.

Published at Bloomfield at Second Class Matter.

Office on Broad St., near the Post Office.

Subscription prices: One year, $2.00; Six months, $1.00; Three months, $0.50. Subscriptions payable in advance.

BRIEF NOTES.

Mr. Garvey's forty chickens were taken away last night.

Mr. Chas. Akers, of Bloomfield, was sworn in at the Grand Jury last week.

An Anti Cigarette Association has been formed among a number of our townsmen.

John Gorse of Caldwell, has taken up his residence in Julius Molter's house on Madison avenue.

Thompson Post Drum Corps will have to seek headquarters elsewhere, as Library Hall is to be torn down.

Police-Inspector Baxter has ordered that the dumping of night soil and other refuse must be stopped.

It is rumored that the business carried on at the Maple Place Dairy will be transferred to Caldwell.

Brook Lodge Knights of Pythias, will hold an entertainment in Dodd's Hall on the evening of the 9th.

Mrs. H. J. Hayter, wife of Rev. H. J. Hayter, visited Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ellor a few days during the past week.

Bloomfield Lodge (German) Knights of Honor have removed their headquarters to Metz's Hall on Bloomfield avenue.

The Orange and Bloomfield Street Railway Company expect to start a force of men at track laying, during the coming week.

For the benefit of their out of town customers, Colyer & Co. the Newark cutlery will keep open evenings until 10 o'clock.

Mr. J. R. Mix, of Orange, has been engaged as organist at the First Presbyterian Church. He will assume the duties on the 1st.

The Citizens Committee in Montclair have protested against the granting of a license to James Green, lessee of the Madison House.

Announcing of the school trustees was made on Tuesday evening. Increased school facilities was one of the principal topics discussed.

To accommodate the public, the water supply have arranged to have Mr. J. P. Scott receive payment of water bills, on Wednesdays.

Mr. A. Day, the baker, attempted to cross through Willow street on Monday. The vehicle got fast in the mud and was stuck with difficulty.

Miss Anne E. Parker of Boston, engaged in educational matters, is spending the Easter vacation with Mrs. Nathan Russell of Glen Ridge.

The Board of Health was organized on Wednesday night. Mr. Samuel Baxter was appointed Inspector and Dr. J. Edgar Southard, Medical Advisor.

Arrangements are being made by the members of the Young Men's Catholic League to hold a bazaar in their building during the latter part of the present month.

$25.00 was subscribed last Sunday towards the erection of a new church building for St. Luke's Church, Montclair. The new structure is estimated to cost $100,000.

Several councils Order American Firemen attended the reception at Montclair on Monday night. Address were made by President F. G. Tower and Chief Howland.

The driver of Wm. King's mad chase was caught between the rollers of the Myrtle street sidewalk. The restlessness threatened him with arrest if he repeated the offense.

Robert Hughes of Bloomfield, employed at Crump's Label Mills got his hand caught between the rollers of the large presses on Monday. His fingers are very severe.

Mr. Adrian H. Dickerson, of Bloomfield, returned from his winter sojourn in the South on Saturday. Mr. Dickerson speaks very favorably of Fort Pierce, Florida, as a winter resort.

A delegation of Silver Lake people called on the Erie Railway officials on Monday and urged them to build a depot at Silver Lake. The Company received the visitors cordially and promised to give the matter due consideration.

The mud that rolls down from the Greenwood Lake Railroad Company's embankment on to the Broad street sidewalk has been cleaned off several times during the past winter. It is in need of it again, the mud being several inches deep.

It is rumored that Rev. J. N. Fitzgerald, a prominent official in the Methodist Church, contemplates purchasing a residence in Bloomfield. Rev. Fitzgerald is prominently spoken of for election to the bishopric at the general conference in New York.

Dr. W. F. Stubbart occupied the pulpit of the Watessing M. E. Church last Sunday morning, and Rev. John A. Monroe of the Park M. E. Church in the evening. The congregation expressed themselves highly pleased with both the reverend gentlemen.

The N. Y. & G. L. R. R. has added a new express train which leaves Montclair at 8.10 A. M., and makes no stops until it reaches Jersey City. The Bloomfield patrons of the road do not take kindly to this movement and are disposed to look upon it as an indignity.

Miss Jen de Ellis as a reader always delights her audience, for her selections are taking and her manner natural and sympathetic. Mr. & Mrs. Ellis draws forth utterances not less pleasing from her violin. Come to the Concert, April 13, in the Park M. E. Church, expecting to be charmingly entertained, by the other artists, and you will not be disappointed.

Robert Van Riper has taken out a warrant for the arrest of Wm. O'Brien, a collector for a Newark furniture store which does business on the installment plan. Mr. Van Riper alleges that he paid money to O'Brien which the latter failed to account for to the company.

Excelsior Lodge Knights of Honor held an entertainment in their lodge rooms last Wednesday evening. A large delegation from Windsor Lodge of New York City was present, as well as many prominent members of the order from Newark and neighboring towns. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

Mr. F. N. Moffat, the directory publisher, will commence a house to house canvass on Monday next for his new directory which will be published in June. Household holders should be prepared to give the proper information as it is of the utmost importance to have a correct directory, and much depends upon them.

The Newark Presbytery met in Montclair during the past week. Dr. C. E. Knox and Rev. H. W. Ballantine were appointed to draw up preamble and resolutions commemorative of the late Dr. Duncan Kennedy. A committee was appointed to arrange for the installation of Rev. G. A. Paul of Westminster Church.

The driver of a Central Railroad truck laden with furniture belonging to a family from Red Bank who have recently taken up their residence in Bloomfield, attempted to drive through Myrtle street on Wednesday evening. The truck mired in the mud when within several hundred feet of the house. The furniture had to be unloaded in the middle of the road and carried to the house.

C. L. Potter, of Fairview, discovered a thief trying to open his cellar windows on Tuesday night. Mr. Potter went to the wood pile and procured an axe. The barking of the dog gave the thief an intimation that he was discovered. He started to run. Mr. Potter fired the axe, striking the fellow in the leg. He gave a yell of pain but ran on. The chase was kept up as far as Bloomfield avenue where the thief made good his escape.

The route designated by the Committee for the new Street Railway is as follows: From the East Orange line to Glenwood avenue through Prospect street centre of the street; from junction of Prospect street and Glenwood avenue to D. L. & W. R. R. on through Glenwood avenue on easterly side; from D. L. & W. R. R. to the Park, through Glenwood avenue and Broad street, centre of street; from Park to northerly terminus, east side of street.

The prompt and energetic action of Mr. Thomas Albion, Jr., and Mr. John E. Higgins, prevented what would have proved a serious conflagration last Thursday morning. Volumes of smoke were discovered issuing from the residence of Mr. Rhodes on Bloomfield avenue near Hill street. Mr. Albion and Mr. Higgins who were in the vicinity at the time, ran in and found that the chimney was on fire. They succeeded in extinguishing the flames, after a hard struggle.

Mr. Charles L. Pilger has moved his family from New York and is now occupying his new house on Berkeley avenue. The house presents a very neat appearance and reflects great credit on the builders, Messrs. H. & C. G. Fritz, who by the way are coming prominently to the front in their line of business. Everybody in Fairview is particularly well pleased with Mr. Pilger's house both as to inside finish and outside architecture, and unanimously proclaim it the handsomest of the new houses yet put up in the neighborhood. The Messrs. Fritz are now building a house for Mrs. Elizabeth Gavitt on the same avenue which bids fair to eclipse Mr. Pilger's.

The ceremony uniting in the bonds of matrimony Mr. James S. Murray and Miss Anna Colfax, daughter of Mr. William Colfax the old established merchant of this place, occurred in the First Presbyterian Church Wednesday evening. The event came off promptly on time—half past six o'clock, in the presence of a large audience. Mr. Wm. C. Carl officiated at the organ. The knot was tied by Rev. H. W. Ballantine, after which a reception to the immediate friends of the young couple was given at Mr. Colfax's house on Broad street. Mr. and Mrs. Murray started on their wedding tour at about 10 o'clock, and upon their return will reside at Chester N. Y., where Mr. Murray is engaged in the dairy business.

An Italian musician was induced to drink a half pint of liquor by a crowd assembled in a Glenwood avenue saloon on Tuesday. Shortly after taking the dose, the man became stupefied. Officer James Foster was sent for to take charge of him. The officer was alarmed at the apparently lifeless condition of the man and sent for a physician. The doctor at first sight pronounced the man dead, but on closer examination found that his heart was still beating. A consultation was held with Justice Hall, who ordered the man to be committed to jail until he recovered from his stupefaction. Much indignation is manifested among the citizens, and an attempt will be made to have the Grand Jury indict the saloon keeper who furnished the liquor.

Glen Ridge.

Mr. Wm. A. Thompson has returned to Chicago.

Mr. James Merrihew has returned from his trip to Florida.

The Misses Fiering are home from school for the Easter vacation.

Miss Rouget's dancing class had their last lesson on Friday evening.

Miss Rouget's dancing class had their last lesson on Friday evening.

Mr. George Dunlop has been absent from home for the past week on a business trip.

Mrs. Scorsby of Scranton, is visiting at the house of Mrs. W. Raynor on Washington avenue.

Several of the houses in Glen Ridge have been greatly improved in appearance this spring, by new paint.

Miss Northall has rented the Gallagher homestead on Clark street, and will reopen her school there next week.

The Ladies Society of the Glen Ridge Church met at the house of Mrs. Bolton on Ridgewood avenue, on Wednesday afternoon. There were twenty-seven ladies present.

The Glen Ridge Whist Club spent a very pleasant evening at the house of Mrs. Richard Jones on Clark street, last Tuesday. Miss Boyd of Brooklyn, is visiting Miss Marie Jones.

There will be a meeting for the organization and recognition of the Glen Ridge Congregational Church at their usual place of meeting on Sunday afternoon. In the morning Dr. Murray of Princeton will preach.

On Thursday evening the 7.56 train to Montclair, carried a large number of residents of Glen Ridge who were bound for the concert of the Ladies Vocal Society. Among them were seen Mr. and Mrs. Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. Salomons, Mr. Wm. McIntosh, Miss McIntosh, Mr. W. Schouler, Mr. Arthur B. Davis, Miss Northall, Mr. and Mrs. Niven and others.

Watessing.

Francis Law visited Washington on Monday.

John Schofield has purchased a building lot on Willow street.

John Hyde is making improvements in front of his store on Orange street.

Rev. J. H. Egbert has added another lot to his property on Bloomfield avenue.

Hewes & Phillips are making a new boiler for the forming mill at Watessing.

Stages are run from the Prospect street depot of the Erie railway to Main street, Orange.

Mr. Joseph Bolles moved into the house recently purchased by him on Prospect street, on Tuesday.

The congregation of the Watessing M. E. Church will have the opportunity of listening to their new pastor to-morrow.

Miss Jennie Law entertained a number of her intimate friends last Friday night, at her home on Myrtle street.

Rev. J. H. Egbert, recently pastor of the Watessing M. E. Church, will take charge of the Methodist Church at Bayonne.

A meeting of the citizens interested in the Berkeley Primary School is called for at that school building on the evening of the 18th.

The congregation of St. Pauls P. E. Church elected the following vestrymen at the parish meeting on Monday night: F. H. Pilch, Steven Gilson, Frank Wiseman, Mr. Wiseman, Mr. Pinneker, Mr. Wallace and Mr. Kerr.

A schedule of prices for the ensuing season has been fixed on between the employees in the making department and their employers, at the hat factories. The finishers schedule will be arranged about the 1st of May.

Dr. Davis of Arlington avenue, East Orange, a rising young physician connected with St. Michael's Hospital, has rented the office adjoining Butterworth's store lately occupied by Dr. Vanpiper, for the purpose of practicing medicine in this vicinity.

Remember the Concert on next Friday night, April 13, in the Park M. E. Church. For particulars see advertisement in another column.

Recognition Services.

Rev. Chas. A. Cook, recently called to the pastorate of the Baptist Church of this place, will occupy his pulpit to-morrow, morning and evening.

On Wednesday evening next, 11th inst., there will be held at the church, a Recognition Service. The exercises will begin at a quarter to eight o'clock, and will consist of an address of welcome to the new pastor and response by him, charge to the pastor, charge to the church, etc. These parts will be taken by neighboring pastors.

Dr. Vassar of Newark, Rev. E. D. Simons of New York, Rev. W. F. Taylor of East Orange, Rev. E. D. Clough of Orange and others, are expected to be present and participate in the exercises. A welcome to Bloomfield will be extended by Rev. H. W. Ballantine of the First Presbyterian Church.

Following the Recognition Services a Reception Sociable will be given by the ladies of the church.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Those who expect to attend the State Convention at Plainfield should hand their names to the General Secretary before the 12th.

The Saturday night meeting for men will be led by Rev. George A. Paul, who will speak on "The Mission of a Young Man." A pleasant hour from 8 to 9 o'clock.

The Woman's Auxiliary have had the beautiful picture by Paynor, framed, and both are greatly admired. The picture was the gift of a number of the Association's friends, and is much appreciated.

The library with its recent additions looks very inviting. Nor is it all in looks. The real value and usefulness may be noticed by a glance. The books still come from friends on all sides.

Notwithstanding the severe storm, fifty-four members of the Boys' Branch Y. M. C. A. assembled Thursday afternoon to enjoy a reception tendered them by the Woman's Auxiliary. A program of readings, recitations and music was rendered, after which all indulged in trying to "pin the tail on a donkey." Then came the refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, cake and lemonade. Great credit is due those who arranged the affair and also the boys for the gentlemanly manner in which they conducted themselves.

Mr. Carl Roder is considered a musical genius by those who know him. Come to the Park M. E. Church next Friday evening and see if you don't form the same opinion.

An Interesting Lecture.

The Rev. S. E. Appleton, D. D., of Philadelphia, will lecture at the Westminster Church, Bloomfield, on Tuesday evening, April 10th. Subject: "All Around the World," giving many incidents that transpired during his visit to China, Japan, Java, Ceylon, India, Egypt, Palestine and Europe. The comments of the press on this lecture are of the highest order, regarding its humorous as well as instructive qualities, and we feel confident it will furnish a pleasant evening's entertainment. To afford all, both great and small, an opportunity to be present, the tickets will be sold at the moderate price of 25 cents each.

Amusement Notes.

Hermann, the eminent prestidigitateur and juggler, will give a series of his engagements in Newark at Minors' Theatre on Tuesday, April 17th. It will be a joyful and wonderful entertainment, for Hermann is the genius of illusion, mystery and laughter.

Of Miss Mason, the soprano soloist of the concert in the Park Methodist Church next Friday evening, the "Musical Courier" says: "Miss Mason's second selection 'Die Lorelei' by Liszt, was artistically rendered, being given throughout with peevish feeling and a purity and steadiness of tone especially commendable."

Business Notices.

Fire Sale.

On Tuesday morning, January 31, we shall commence our sale by water and smoke at the fire in our store last month. We have about 500 pairs of shoes and boots, some slightly soiled, which we will sell at prices varying from 10 cents to $3.25.

All damaged goods have been carefully selected out and sold in New York at auction, so that none but good shoes remain.

The following are a few sample prices: Ladies' misses and children's overcoats (about 1000 pairs) at 10 cents; about 500 pairs of ladies' slippers, Oxford toes and button boots, at 50 cents a pair; children's spring-heeled button shoes at 45 cents; a lot of ladies' French kid button boots at $2; ladies' glass kid button boots, Dongola tops, at $1; a small lot of gent's cork-sole shoes, "Warwell" hand-sewed, $3.25; ladies' cork-sole button shoes at $3; a small lot of "Boydens," gent's shoes, button and oxford, at $3.75, worth $5 to $6; men's rubber boots at $2 per pair; men's buckle arched shoes at $1 per pair.

During this sale we shall reduce the price of all the goods in our store, so that if you do not need foot-wear at the present time it will pay you to purchase and keep for future use.

TAYLOR & WILLIAMS.

No. 157 Market street, Newark.

First shoe store above Broad street.

The Water Company.

Having arranged with Mr. J. P. SCHERFF, Water Bills may be paid to him, or messages for the Company left at his Drug Store, Bloomfield, cor. Glenwood and Washington avenues.

Kill Two Birds with One Stone!

Please YOURSELF and HELP in a good cause, by attending the

CHOICE CONCERT

to be given under the auspices of the Young People's Association of the PARK M. E. CHURCH,

In the Church,

Friday Eve., April 13,

—BY—

MISS ANITA MASON, Vocalist, (First Soprano, South Church, 7th St. and 21st St., N. Y.)

MISS ETHEL ELLIS, Violinist,

MISS JESSIE ELLIS, Elocutionist, and

MR. CARL ROEDER, Pianist, all of New York, abundantly competent, both by natural ability and training.

Admission 35c. Reserved Seat 50c.

Tickets exchanged and reserved seats procured at Geo. M. Wood's Drug Store.

SHORTHAND. Private instruction by Thomas M. Evanski, 309 Washington Street, Newark, N. J.

12 years' experience. No failures. Situations guaranteed. Box and Circulars Free. FRANK HARRISON, Stenographer, 721 Broad Street, Newark, N. J.

FOR SALE AT GLEN RIDGE, N. J.

A thirteen (13) room cottage, all modern improvements. Fine views, excellent drainage, grand old forest trees, exceptional neighborhood and location, convenient to schools, churches and markets; also a ten room cottage same location.

Enquire of Agent at Station, Glen Ridge, N. J.

TEN DOLLARS REWARD. Lost or strayed on Thursday afternoon a Pug Dog, belonging to E. P. MITCHELL, Clark street, Glen Ridge.

BOARD. Gentlemen and wife or two gentlemen can be accommodated with pleasant room and board. Location centre of town. Also table boarders wanted. Address Post Box 371.

CHAMBERMAID and WAITRESS. Wanted, a person to attend to the hotel, only intelligent and capable. Apply to Mrs. A. J. LOCKWOOD, Hillside Avenue, Glen Ridge.

ANY MAN of ordinary ability who can furnish good references can have steady employment with good pay, by addressing S. A. MOOMBER & CO., Rochester, N. Y.

FOR SALE OR TO LET. House on Lincoln Ave., Glen Ridge, eight rooms, modern improvements. Rent $30 per month.

Also TO LET, House on Linden Avenue, Bloomfield, rent $21 per month. Inquire of P. W. POWERS, P. O. Box 57, Glen Ridge, N. J.

WANTED.—To rent or buy on easy terms, a 52 inch Bicycle. Address L., Box 363.

For Sale.

The Residence of the late WILLIAM JARVIS, on Linden Ave. Has all modern improvements. $5000 (an) on hand and mortgage at 4% per cent.

WANTED. Copywriters for Baldwin's Directory in Bloomfield and Montclair. Only intelligent men and legible writers need apply; good wages paid. Apply in person to F. W. & J. H. BALDWIN, publishers, corner Main and Coe Streets, Orange.

For Sale.

ON HIGHLAND AVENUE, GLEN RIDGE, HOUSE.

CONTAINING 11 ROOMS, with all modern improvements. Size of Lot 100 feet front by 250 feet deep, with fine fruit and shade trees. Within five minutes' ride of Glen Ridge Depot and three minutes' ride of station on N. Y. & Greenwood Lake Rwy. Price $7500, on easy terms.

Also—Fine Building Lots

On Highland Avenue and Benson Street, near the station, for building fine houses and perfect drainage, being the most beautiful and elevated land in Glen Ridge.

On easy terms for immediate improvement. H. K. BENSON, Exc.

For Sale.

A desirable plot of Land on West side of Bloomfield Avenue, 300 feet South of Hill street, and opposite the Berkeley School, 75 by 184. Will be sold on favorable terms for improvement.

Address W. D. GARTER, 800 Broad St., Newark, N. J.

CHAS. W. MARTIN,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

GROGER,

Bloomfield Ave. and Broad St.

Specialties:

Choice Teas and Coffees.

Creamery and Dairy

BUTTER.

After April 1st

W. S. COOPER

Will occupy the PICTURE FRAME STORE on

Broad St., Opp. Post Office,

WITH AN ENTIRELY NEW STOCK OF GOODS.

Electric Work, Wall Mouldings, Picture Frames, Window and Door Screens, Etc., Etc.

All branches of work will be promptly attended to and carefully executed.

After the above date I will make Life-size Crayon Portraits, framed in Gold or Bronze Moulding, for less money than they have ever been offered before.

Pure Drugs, Chemicals, Toilet Articles, Etc.

GEORGE M. WOOD,

PHARMACIST,

BROAD STREET,

Nearly Opposite Post Office, - - - BLOOMFIELD.

SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN

To the Accurate Compounding of Physicians' Prescriptions.

ATTENDANCE ON SUNDAYS:

From 9 A. M. to 1 P. M. From 3 to 6 P. M. And from 7 to 9 in the evening.

MONEY! MONEY! MONEY!

$50 and upwards loaned on Furniture in use, and on all kinds of personal property without removal. All dealings strictly confidential. Address J. WHITFIELD & CO., P. O. Box 301, Bloomfield, N. J.

To the Farmers and Dairymen

OF BLOOMFIELD AND VICINITY.

I have made arrangements with a prominent firm of Newark whereby a carload of best quality Brewers' Grains will be shipped to me at Watessing every Tuesday. I will dispose of them direct from car on Watessing siding at 9 cents per bushel.

A. P. QUIMBY.

J. W. BRERETON, Watchmaker and Jeweler.

Full Line of Celebrated 'DIAMOND' SPECTACLES For sale by BRERETON ONLY.

Fine Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.

Fine Watches Cleaned and Adjusted. French Clocks Cleaned and Repaired.

J. W. BRERETON, Glenwood Ave.

BROKEN STONE

IN ANY QUANTITY

FOR SALE BY

C. E. McDOWELL.

THE

MUTUAL LIFE

INSURANCE COMPANY

OF NEW YORK.

THE LARGEST. THE STRONGEST. THE CHEAPEST. THE BEST.

Bloomfield Office, Near D. L. & W. Depot.

To My Bloomfield Customers:

In removing my business to Montclair I do not entertain any idea of giving up my Bloomfield trade. I have for the past year done considerable work in Montclair, with promptness and satisfaction, and shall endeavor to give my many Bloomfield friends prompt and satisfactory work. I have arranged with YOUTHT BROS. to receive any orders for me, and shall give them prompt attention. I will have Telephone connections with my new building, for direct communication.

Be sure and leave orders with Yought Bros. only.

Respectfully,